ALL SAINTS DAY PARTY

– All Saints Day is Saturday, November 1st. To celebrate our wonderful heritage of Saving Grace the Spiritual Life Committee and the Knights of Columbus are sponsoring a party remembering the example of the holy men and women who have preceded us in life immediately following the 4:00 p.m. Mass (which will be a Mass for All Souls) in the gymnasium. There will be a costume contest and all children (and adults, too, if the Holy Spirit so moves you!) should come to Mass dressed as the saint of their choice for the Parade of Saints and Holy People. There will be games, candy, prizes hot dogs, chilli and fun for everyone. Start working on your costumes NOW! Goblins and ghosts, werewolves and pirates and other traditional Halloween costumes will not be admitted. Admission is just $2.00/person, but all saints in costume will receive free admission.

Spiritual Adopted Babies: Through the month of October, you will have an opportunity to spiritually adopt an unborn baby. There will be another basket with pictures of baby items next to a board. Please write the name of you adopted baby and stick it to the board. This display of names will remind and encourage us to pray daily for these children. Please see the bulletin insert to spiritually adopt an unborn child.

Students in junior high and high school parish youth groups are invited to attend an International Lasallian Day of Prayer for Peace at Christian Brothers High School on Sunday, October 26. Activities begin on the CBHS campus at 1 p.m. and culminate with Mass at 3 p.m. The day's theme is "what does it mean to be your brother's keeper?" Students will explore the topic through poster- and banner-making and a variety of small-group activities. Those with carpentry skills can help construct a "peace altar" which will be used during the Mass. For more information contact Mr. Justin Kuehl at CBHS, jkuehl@cbhs.org or 261-4900.

Please pick up your ministers schedule in the Vestibule.

ALL SOULS DAY – Nov 2nd is the celebration of All Souls Day. It is the day that Catholics remember all the dead who have not been canonized by the Church, especially the members of the Church Suffering – those in Purgatory. Sacred Scripture teaches us that it is a good and holy thing to offer sacrifice for those who have died. The most perfect sacrifice is the Mass, and the faithful are encouraged to include their loved ones in the celebration of Mass on All Souls Day. Mass at OLS will be at 8:15 am. To have your loved ones remember, use the envelope that is in your box set or in the pews. Please print their names clearly so we can include them in our Book of Souls that will be displayed throughout the month of November.

We are scheduling MASS INTENTIONS for 2009. Please call the rectory for your intention.

CHARACTER

BALANCE

Today's scriptures emphasize the fundamental link between love of God and love of our neighbors, especially those who are most in need. Love of God should compel us to love the people whom God cherishes. Conversely, work for justice and charity for those in need should be rooted in our love of God.

That connection and balance, however, isn't always easy to maintain in our lives. Even in religious orders we find that some Christians are more oriented toward contemplation and prayer, while others are more active in reaching out to those who are oppressed. Today Jesus reminds us of the necessity for both in the life of faith.

The Catholic Café Radio Show airing weekly on KWAM 900 AM. If you know someone who's fallen away from Church, or you just want to know more about the faith, tune in Sundays at 10 am. This week listen as Deacon Jeff and Bishop J. Terry Steib discuss the topic of Apostolic Succession. Next week will be Sister Francine discussing Contraception.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We had sixteen hundred years' experience with one Eucharistic Prayer in our repertoire, and the liturgical reforms of the Council of Trent shaped the way we worshiped for four hundred years. In the last years of the Tridentine Mass, the early 1960s, we tended to see children as miniature adults. Fully rooted in the Sunday assembly by the decision of Pope St. Pius X to push Communion back to the age of seven or so from the standard age of twelve to fourteen years during the early 1900s, children were still more tolerated than acknowledged. The Mass was in Latin, and by the 1960s the people had begun to regain their voices in the "dialogue Mass," so the focus was on training little children to recite or sing in Latin.

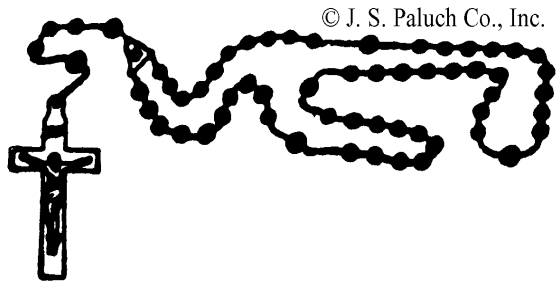

The new attention to the experience of children, their ability to enter into ritual, their spontaneity, their ability to grasp key concepts in faith, felt "untraditional." Yet we can trace in our tradition the ways in which children have long been given a special place in the assembly. From earliest times, boys have served in choirs and certain ministries in monasteries and in parish churches. Girls were sometimes entrusted to nuns, learning liturgical chants and the arts. Yet, in our day, the formation of a Lectionary for children and Eucharistic Prayers suited to them are truly tremendous breakthroughs in our treasury of prayer.
