

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 26, 2010

CHRIST
APPEARS IN GLORY

*[K]eep the commandment without stain or reproach
until the appearance of our Lord
Jesus Christ.
— 1 Timothy 6:14*

TODAY'S READING

First Reading — Woe to the complacent. Their wanton revelry shall be done away with (Amos 6:1a, 4-7).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146).

Second Reading — Compete well for the faith. Keep the commandment until the appearance of the Lord Jesus (1 Timothy 6:11-16).

Gospel — The parable of Lazarus and the rich man (Luke 16:19-31).

AT THE END

In the coming weeks, as we draw nearer to the end of the liturgical year, we will often hear references to the end of our lives and the end of time. This week's scriptures are no exception. The reading from Timothy warns us to live "without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Timothy 6:14), and the psalm says that God "secures justice for the oppressed . . . but the way of the wicked he thwarts" (Psalm 146:7, 9). In the reading from Amos we hear about the "woe" that is in store for the complacent rich, who think nothing of how their self-indulgence oppresses the poor. The Gospel parable about Lazarus and the nameless rich man exemplifies such complacency, as well as the justice that both the wicked and the oppressed will experience beyond the grave.

SAINT THÉRÈSE OF THE CHILD JESUS
(1873-1897)

October 1

“The cornerstone’s dated 1872, but the stained glass is much later,” explained the pastor, astonished when his visitor accurately dated it to just before the Great Depression, explaining, “The window for the Little Flower”—Thérèse’s nickname—“gives it away.” From her canonization in 1925, her statues and windows adorn most churches where European immigrants worshiped. Entering Carmel at fifteen, victim of tuberculosis at twenty-four, Therese proposed her “Little Way” to sanctity: doing ordinary tasks with extraordinary love. Thus “ordinary Catholics,” many of whom had lost loved ones to tuberculosis, embraced her. Though she never left her cloister, this Carmelite’s spiritual communion and devoted correspondence with missionaries earned her the title Patroness of Missions. Her autobiography, Story of a Soul, continuously in print since her death, chronicles her prayerful perseverance through doubt and caused her to be the youngest person ever named a Doctor of the Church. Countless physical healings and spiritual conversions testify to her fulfillment of her deathbed promise: “After my death, I will let fall a shower of roses. I will spend my heaven doing good upon earth!”

Spanish-speaking Catechist: Our parish is in desperate need for a catechist who is fluent in Spanish to help prepare Spanish-speaking individuals who desire to receive Holy Communion and the Sacrament of Confirmation. There is at least one young couple who longs for the sacraments and needs catechesis. Please call the Parish Office to offer your services.

Did You Miss the Sacrament of Confirmation along the Way?: Through no fault of their own, many young Catholics miss the sacrament of Confirmation in their youth. Did you parents move while you were a teenager? Did you miss participation in a religious education program? If you missed receiving the sacrament of Confirmation (or, Eucharist) in your youth, please let us know. We are eager to assist you in becoming fully initiated into the life of the Church. Please call the Parish Office (353-1530) so someone can contact you about rectifying your situation.

Need roommate for 2 bedrooms, 2 bath, newly decorated, washer, dryer, LG&W, phone and direct TV for $450 monthly. Must keep clean if interested, please call Helen at 357-2266.

Each team will be asked to cook a certain number of steaks and those purchasing steak dinners may order their steak cooked to order from any of the competing teams as long as a team still has steaks available. The cost of the steak dinner is $12.00/person. That's a real bargain for a 16-ounce steak grilled to perfection! Some lucky dinners will be eating a steak from the winning team, which will be announced later in the evening. Who knows? It just might be you!!!!!!

Eaglefest Raffle Tickets: Every family registered in the parish has been sent 25 Eaglefest Raffle tickets by mail. They were mailed on Thursday. Parish families with children enrolled in our parish school received their tickets through their children (15 tickets per student) on Thursday. Remember to SELL the tickets because every time you ask someone to buy a ticket you are giving Eaglefest free publicity. Please return your stubs with the proper amount of money in the brown envelope provided with your tickets. You may put them in any collection basket at church or mail them to us; however, please do not mail cash. We have extra tickets available in the parish office for those who feel they can sell more than 25. Also, since we have distrusted nearly all of our original order of 10,000 tickets to parishioners and students, we have ordered additional tickets to insure that we have an adequate supply to sell on the day of Eaglefest. Please return your unsold tickets to the Parish Office before Wednesday, October 6 so we can correct our records and try to sell them at the festival. Tickets are $5.00 each OR 5 for $20.00. The person who sells the winning ticket will be awarded a $100 cash prize. MUST BE 18 OR ORDER TO PURCHASED TICKET.

RESCUE

It had been raining for days and days on end and a terrible flood had come over the land. The water rose so rapidly that a man was forced to climb onto the roof of his house. As the water level increased, two people in a rowboat came by and told him to get in. "No," replied the man on the roof. "I have faith in the Lord; the Lord will save me." So the people rowed away. The man prayed. The water was already above the second story windows and suddenly a speedboat came roaring by. "Climb in!" shouted the man in the boat. "No," replied the man on the roof. "I have faith in the Lord; the Lord will save me." So the man in the speedboat gunned his engine and left. As the waters lapped at the edge of the roof, the man held onto the chimney and prayed for God to save him. He heard the sound of an approaching helicopter. Over a loudspeaker, the pilot announced that he would lower a rope to the man on the roof. "No," replied the man on the roof. "I have faith in the Lord; the Lord will save me." So the helicopter whirled away as once again the man prayed desperately to God to save him. The floodwaters flowed up the roof until they were swirling about him as he clung to the chimney. The currents were so fierce that they washed him away and, alas, the poor man quickly drowned. When he arrived in heaven, the man marched straight over to God. "Heavenly Father," he said, "I had faith in you, I prayed to you to save me, and yet you did nothing. Why?" God gave him a puzzled look, and replied, "I sent you two boats and a helicopter. What more did you expect?"

Holy Protection of the Mother of God

A feast of the Mother of God under this title is observed in the Eastern Orthodox and Eastern Catholic Churches. It celebrates the protection afforded the faithful through the intercessions of the Theotokos ("God-bearer," Mother of God). Among the Slavic peoples, it is one of the most beloved feasts of the Orthodox calendar.

Because there is a need for servers at every Mass, those interested in serving at the altar must be able to serve at any of the Sunday and holy day Masses scheduled at OLS and not just their "favorite" Mass.

Padre's Kitchen: He's baaaaack! There is a new batch of jams and jellies available from Padre's Kitchen. Check out the supply in the church vestibule and make your selections before Eaglefest or your favorites might be gone. Bread 'n Butter Pickles, Fig Jam and additional Memphis Blueberry Jam is still to be canned. Look for them soon! Sorry, there were no new sugar-free items canned this year because of the high rate of spoilage in the batches put up last year.

Youth Group News: The Youth Group will meet at 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 30, to place the white crosses on the front lawn to remind us of the lives extinguished too soon by abortion. (Service hours will be given for those participating.)

The group will meet again on Thursday, October 7, at 6:30 p.m., in the cafeteria for a light supper and activity. We will sign-up for service to the parish at Eaglefest (service hours available), distribute retreat registration forms for SEARCH (11-12 grades), QUEST (9-10 grades) and VOYAGE (7-8 grades), schedule a night to go to the corn maze at Shelby Farms in October, and discuss the All-Saints Party on October 30. Thank you, Mr. Mick McCune, for coming to our meeting on Thursday and helping with the dinner. You're a great man in our eyes and in the sight of God!

TALENTED AND ENERGETIC
