

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 16, 2011

I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

— Isaiah 49:6b

CALLED TO BE HOLY

With this Sunday we begin Ordinary Time. The readings tell us about God's relationship with Israel and John the Baptist's relationship with Jesus. Israel's relationship with God is so close, so intimate, that it is through Israel that God's "salvation [will] reach to the ends of the earth" (Isaiah 49:6). But we know from John the Baptist that for Israel to accomplish God's will, it must also recognize that Jesus is the Son of God. During these weeks we also get to know Jesus. We begin to understand more deeply our relationship to Jesus and what that relationship means for us, who are "called to be holy" (1 Corinthians 1:2).

Campbell Soup Labels: We are still collecting Campbell Soup labels. Like the Box Tops for Education, these labels are worth cash money to our parish school. All you have to do is remove the label from the can after you have used it and put the labels in the same box in the vestibule of the church used for the Box Tops promotion. It's another easy way to support OUR parish school.

DON'T THROW GOOD MONEY AWAY!!!! Please clip and save the Box Tops for Education labels from General Mills products and put them in the box in the vestibule of the church. Every label is worth 10¢ to our school. As you prepare to bake for the holidays, please consider purchasing Betty Crocker mixes that have TWO labels per box and doubling your contribution to the school. This is a great way to support the school without having to write a separate check. We've already collected almost 1,000 labels this year and our goal is 10,000.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Greeting

At several points during the liturgy, the presider greets us with the words, “The Lord be with you.” These simple words are not like the greetings that we exchange all day long—our “good mornings,” our “hellos” and “how are yous.” This liturgical greeting has roots deep in the Old Testament. In the book of Ruth, the words “the Lord be with you” are spoken by Boaz to the harvesters who are laboring in his fields (2:4); in the book of Judges, an angel speaks similar words to Gideon (6:12), where they are words of promise: for soon Gideon will lead his oppressed people to victory and freedom. For us, the words become a greeting of peace, a prayer that the Lord will indeed be with us, and a reminder of his promise to be with us always, to the end of the world (Matthew 28:20). Our response—“And also with you,” soon to be “And with your spirit”—returns to the presider this prayer for the Lord’s presence. As we know from the scriptures, a prayer for the Lord’s presence is no small thing, for when God comes in our midst, God brings healing, grace, and challenge. God’s presence transforms us.

ALWAYS RESPONSIBLE

In the 1940s, Antoine de Saint Exupéry wrote a story for children, The Little Prince, that many adults appreciate. The Little Prince inhabits a small asteroid, where he spends his time caring for one beautiful rose and rooting out baobab trees, which threaten to destroy life around them. The Little Prince visits other planets and then comes to Earth, where he meets the Fox. The Fox asks the Little Prince to tame him, explaining that taming means being responsible for someone. The Little Prince says he understands taming because of the rose that he loves, cares for, and protects. The Fox says the rose must be special because of all that time devoted to it. The Fox also tells the Little Prince that the most significant things in life are seen only with the heart, and he warns him not to forget a key truth: You are responsible, forever, for what you have tamed. We have each established ties with our parish on some level, and whatever time and abilities we devote to God and to each other make those connections stronger. We obviously need our parish, or we wouldn’t be here. Our parish is our spiritual home and a source of life through worship, friendships, and shared labor. The ties that we establish with our fellow parishioners form that essential connection that is invisible to the eye. The parish, in turn, needs our time, our devotion, care, and protection, and our monetary support to fulfill its mission. The good news is that God has “tamed” us and is responsible for us in the here and now and on into the future. It seems only right that all of us, in turn, are responsible for God’s church, God’s people, and God’s world. Are you doing your part?

Lenten Bible Study: Like last year, we will be participating in the Disciples on the Journey study groups for the season of Lent. We are in need of hosts for the duration of the program. Remember, host only need to provide space for group members. Other people on the group should provide the refreshments each week. Next week and the week after we will solicit hosts for the Bible Study. Hosts should inform us of the day and time they wish to host their group when they sign-up. This will help us in explaining the program to others in the parish who will have until mid-February to join a group.

Chocolate Roses: The students of OLS are once again selling chocolate roses for Valentine's Day. Each rose is $1.00. You have a choice of chocolate, white and pink roses. Why not give a dozen to your sweetheart and 1 or 2 to your secretary and friends? After all, they are much less expensive than FTD roses! Watch the bulletin or speak to one of the students after Mass because nothing whispers love more than c-h-o-c-o-l-a-t-e....

School Improvements: We undertook several projects over the Christmas vacation. 1) It took nine days, but a team was successful in stripping the hallway and cafeteria floors all the way down to the original tiles. It was estimated that there were 25-35 coats of wax on the floor, which is white and not yellow. Two new coats of wax are now on the floor. 2) We had to have part of the grotto between the two wings of the school dug up to address drainage problems in the kitchen and bathrooms at the school. We hope we have solved the problem, but it will be sometime before we know for certain. 3) We have contacted a company to replace the exterior doors to the church basement. 4) Deacon Henry got all the exterior lights on the parking lot working again which will make walking to the gymnasium, into church, and across the parking lot much safer.

Help Needed: 1) We need adult volunteers to paint the hallway of the school during the Spring Break (March 14-18). 2) We are still looking for someone to finish the job of replacing the doors on the front of the church. Two new doors need to replace the two bad ones and the kick guards need to be placed on all four doors. 3) As warm weather approaches, we need to power clean the covering over the side entrance to the church and the entrance to the school so we can get them painted and then work on getting the holes patched. 4) We need a team of people to do a deep cleaning of the hallways in the basement of the church and to paint the ductwork.
