SHARE THE BURDEN

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28). These words of our Savior seem to be in stark contrast to the previous chapter from the same Gospel, when we were told that if we do not take up our crosses, we are not worthy of Christ. Connecting these two messages might help us on our faith journeys. Being a follower of Christ surely means that we must embrace the cross, in its mystery of both suffering and triumph. This is something that we need not do alone, for the burden is often too heavy for us to carry by ourselves. Who, then, do we turn to? We can turn to the Body of Christ—the community of disciples gathered for worship. When we find the burden too heavy, let us remember that we can share that burden with our Christian sisters and brothers, who can help bring us rest.

Spiritual Adoptions Nearly Complete: Back in October, we committed to pray daily for unborn babies who are at a high risk of being aborted. We even gave them names. In just a few weeks we will be celebrating the live births of these children and giving thanks to God that their mothers avoided the temptation to abort the children He entrusted to their care. These are the names of the babies we have been praying for this year: Jason, Godot, Dalan Cooper, James Lee, Demilin Remes, Peter Lewis, Joseph Will, Chris Smith, Alis Blake, Michael Juan, Jose Luis, Michael, Devon Hudson, Anthony Peter, Tim, Francisco Javier, Fred W., Bruce Lee, Micahel James, Flor, Ethan, Jack Chan, Edward Rubert, Narrito Uzimake, Alex, David Michael, Freddy, Matthew Paul, Keaton, Tony White, Kris & Karl Kringle, Jon the Baptist, Jason Sky, Francis Nino, Joseph Tony, John Matthews, Tiberius Francis, Eugene Winston, Lil' Joe, Julio Cesar, Brayden, Brenda Diana, Cassie London, Marianna Carmemela, Storie, Alajandra Jacqueline, Ashley Lynn, Lorel Sender, Maria, Gabrielle Jakailea, Mariah Rosealina, Mariah Margaret, Abbi, Star Paz, Mary Grace, Esperanza, Rachel, Brigid Allean, Rainbow, Hannah, Sarah, Lily, Anna, Mary Gloria, Stor Fruda, Emeria Alice (Eme).

FEAST OF FAITH
Little Mysteries

Two small rites—or, as one liturgist has called them, “little mysteries”—accompany the preparation of the gifts. The priest or deacon takes a small cruet of water from the server and adds a drop of water to the wine. Then, after the elevation of the chalice (and the incensation, if incense is used), the priest washes his hands. Both of these actions were at first practical, matter-of-fact realities: in the ancient world the wine was usually quite thick, and was generally mixed with water before it was drunk. And in the early church, when the faithful brought forward a great variety of gifts at this time, there was a definite need for the presider to wash his hands!

But now these rites serve a purely symbolic function. The mingling of the water and wine is accompanied by a prayer that speaks of the wonderful exchange of the Mass, the mingling of Christ’s divinity and our humanity. And as the priest washes his hands, he prays words of supplication from Psalm 51, acknowledging his own sinfulness in the presence of the assembly before he dares to approach the altar for this most sacred action.

Adult Education, 2011-2012: We will be studying church history in the coming year in a 20-session course that tells our Catholic story as it has unfolded for nearly 2,000 years. We will learn about the major events and characters that have impacted the growth of the Church, the periods of our struggle to be the Body of Christ, the good popes and the bad popes, the sinners and the saints, the true story of the crusades and inquisitions, and more. Each week this will be a short reading assignment for background to the lesson, a video lecture by a leading expert in church history, reflection time to answer some questions and group sharing. The Sunday evening class (6:30-8:30 p.m.) will be moderated by Gerry Taulman. Fr. Timby will lead the Thursday morning (9:30-11:30 a.m.) group. The cost for this course is $30.00 per person. (The cost was inaccurately stated as $25.00 in last week’s bulletin. Sorry.) Please call the Parish Office to join one of the classes so that we will have materials for every participant.

OLS Centennial Cookbook: Recipes are slowly coming in. So far, we have recipes for Crescent Rolls, Banana-Praline Muffins, Balsamic-Garlic Chicken Breasts, Chicken and Wild Rice Casserole, Shoepeg Casserole, Creamy Broccoli Casserole, French Cream with Peach Melba, Grape Salad, Barvarian Beef and Potatoes, Easy Sausage and Cheese Roll-Ups, Chicken and Sausage Paella, Grandma Bessie’s Pinwheels, Pumpkin Cheesecake Pie, Frozen Peanut Butter Pie, and about 15 others. Have you submitted your recipes yet? Put your recipes in the Sunday collection or bring them by the rectory. You can email them to olsmemphis@aol.com. Just be sure to put “Recipes” in the subject line. The deadline to submit recipes is September 15, our Parish Feast Day, but PLEASE don’t wait until the last minute or our typist might quit since all recipes must be formatted the same way and categorized before submitting them to the printer. We need a minimum of 300 recipes to go to print. We need recipes for appetizers, soups, salads, meat dishes, pasta dishes, vegetables, Mexican and other ethnic food, desserts, specialty drinks, desserts. Update: Sharon O’Brien brought a recipe in for 6-Layer Mexican Dip and Sylvia Viglietti brought in about 10 recipes. Thanks everyone!
