

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 31, 2011

All you who are thirsty, come to the water!

OUR DEEPEST NEEDS

The word of God serves up a tremendous feast for us today. Isaiah beckons all who hunger and thirst to come to the Lord for satisfaction. The psalmist cries out, “The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs” (Psalm 145:16). Saint Paul tells us that nothing can separate us from the love of God. Finally, in the Gospel, we hear the story of the miraculous feeding of over five thousand people from a mere five loaves and two fish. Most of us have our material needs met on a day-to-day basis. These scriptures, nevertheless, have much to say to the contemporary believer. We must ask ourselves, “Where are my deepest hungers? Where are my thirsts?” After material needs are satisfied and, in some cases, over-satisfied, many people still experience a deep longing for spiritual balance and well-being. As the loaves and fish are multiplied in today’s Gospel, perhaps our prayer can be a longing for the satisfaction of the deepest needs that only God can fill.

TODAY’S READING

First Reading — All you who thirst, come to the water! You without money, come to the feast! (Isaiah 55:1-3).

Psalm — The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs (Psalm 145).

Second Reading — Nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ (Romans 8:35, 37-39).

Gospel — All ate until satisfied; they collected twelve baskets of what was left over (Matthew 14:13-21).

VIRTUS Training in Spanish: VIRTUS is the brand name that identifies best practices programs designed to help prevent wrongdoing and promote "right-doing" within religious organizations. The VIRTUS programs empower organizations and people to better control risk and improve the lives of all those who interact with the Church. On Saturday, August 13th a VIRTUS training in Spanish will be offer at the school of the Resurrection from 9:00 am to 12:00 p.m. Personnel in the church working with children and youth are encouraged to attend. Please register by calling 901-722-4759 to prepare your material.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA): RCIA classes will begin soon for those interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith. Do you know someone who might be considering the possibility of being baptized or someone previously baptized who desires to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church? Ask them to accompany you to inquiry classes. Offer to be a sponsor for their faith journey. Contact the Parish Office to suggest names and for specific information about classes dates and times.

Spiritual Adoptions Nearly Complete: Back in October, we committed to pray daily for unborn babies who are at a high risk of being aborted. We even gave them names. In just a few weeks we will be celebrating the live births of these children and giving thanks to God that their mothers avoided the temptation to abort the children He entrusted to their care. These are the names of the babies we have been praying for this year: Jason, Godot, Dalan Cooper, James Lee, Demilin Remes, Peter Lewis, Joseph Will, Chris Smith, Alis Blake, Michael Juan, Jose Luis, Michael, Devon Hudson, Anthony Peter, Tim, Francisco Javier, Fred W., Bruce Lee, Micahel James, Flor, Ethan, Jack Chan, Edward Rubert, Narrito Uzimake, Alex, David Michael, Freddy, Matthew Paul, Keaton, Tony White, Kris & Karl Kringle, Jon the Baptist, Jason Sky, Francis Nino, Joseph Tony, John Matthews, Tiberius Francis, Eugene Winston, Lil' Joe, Julio Cesar, Brayden, Brenda Diana, Cassie London, Marianna Carmemela, Storie, Alajandra Jacqueline, Ashley Lynn, Lorel Sender, Maria, Gabrielle Jakailea, Mariah Rosealina, Mariah Margaret, Abbi, Star Paz, Mary Grace, Esperanza, Rachel, Brigid Allean, Rainbow, Hannah, Sarah, Lily, Anna, Mary Gloria, Stor Fruda, Emeria Alice (Eme). “A large basket for gifts and a small one for monetary donations will be located at Blessed Mother’s Statue, throughout July, for gifts in Thanksgiving for the Births of our Babies. All gifts and money will be donated to Birthright.”

FEAST OF FAITH

The Preface: Thanksgiving

The preface of the Mass has been called “a poem, the cry of joy and recognition, the song of the world discovering its salvation . . . the certitude of faith making hope spring forth” (Philippe Béguerie, quoted in The Mass, Lucien Deiss, The Liturgical Press, Collegeville, MN, 1992, p. 70). The preface takes up the last words of the dialogue, and expresses briefly and simply why we are grateful, why it is right and just to give thanks and praise to God. On feast days, the preface sings of the specific mystery or saint we celebrate; in Ordinary Time, the Sunday and weekday prefaces express our gratitude for God’s gift of the Son, Jesus Christ, in whom we have redemption and newness of life. The prefaces offer a succinct account of what God has done for us in Christ; they express the mystery of faith, always relating it to us, to our lives. “By his birth we are reborn,” we hear in Preface IV for Sundays in Ordinary Time. “By his suffering we are freed from sin. By his rising from the dead we rise to everlasting life.” Yes, we have cause to give God thanks and praise.

Adult Education, 2011-2012: We will be studying church history in the coming year in a 20-session course that tells our Catholic story as it has unfolded for nearly 2,000 years. We will learn about the major events and characters that have impacted the growth of the Church, the periods of our struggle to be the Body of Christ, the good popes and the bad popes, the sinners and the saints, the true story of the crusades and inquisitions, and more. Each week this will be a short reading assignment for background to the lesson, a video lecture by a leading expert in church history, reflection time to answer some questions and group sharing. The Sunday evening class (6:30-8:30 p.m.) will be moderated by Gerry Taulman. Fr. Timby will lead the Thursday morning (9:30-11:30 a.m.) group. The cost for this course is $30.00 per person. (The cost was inaccurately stated as $25.00 in last week’s bulletin. Sorry.) Please call the Parish Office to join one of the classes so that we will have materials for every participant.

OLS Centennial Cookbook: Recipes are slowly coming in. So far, we have recipes for Crescent Rolls, Banana-Praline Muffins, Balsamic-Garlic Chicken Breasts, Chicken and Wild Rice Casserole, Shoepeg Casserole, Creamy Broccoli Casserole, French Cream with Peach Melba, Grape Salad, Barvarian Beef and Potatoes, Easy Sausage and Cheese Roll-Ups, Chicken and Sausage Paella, Grandma Bessie’s Pinwheels, Pumpkin Cheesecake Pie, Frozen Peanut Butter Pie, and about 15 others. Have you submitted your recipes yet? Put your recipes in the Sunday collection or bring them by the rectory. You can email them to olsmemphis@aol.com. Just be sure to put “Recipes” in the subject line. The deadline to submit recipes is September 15, our Parish Feast Day, but PLEASE don’t wait until the last minute or our typist might quit since all recipes must be formatted the same way and categorized before submitting them to the printer. We need a minimum of 300 recipes to go to print. We need recipes for appetizers, soups, salads, meat dishes, pasta dishes, vegetables, Mexican and other ethnic food, desserts, specialty drinks, desserts. Update: Sharon O’Brien brought a recipe in for 6-Layer Mexican Dip and Sylvia Viglietti brought in about 10 recipes. Thanks everyone!
