

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 28, 2011

*Be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God,
what is good and pleasing and perfect.*

— Romans 12:2

TODAY'S READING

First Reading — The name of the LORD has become like fire burning in Jeremiah's heart (Jeremiah 20:7-9).

Psalm — My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God (Psalm 63).

Second Reading — Be transformed; renew your mind; discern what is good (Romans 12:1-2).

Gospel — Those who lose their lives for Jesus' sake will find them (Matthew 16:21-27).

THE CROSS OF JESUS

The perception of a cross changed dramatically after Jesus' crucifixion. Before that event, death on a cross was not only horrible, it was degrading. It was a penalty reserved only for the most wretched of criminals. The word "glory" would not have found its way into the same sentence containing the word "cross." But all that changed with Jesus. Over time, believers began to venerate and honor the cross. They painted, sculpted, and carved images of it. Many lost their own lives for their association with it. Today our reverence for and relationship with the cross recalls little of the contempt originally associated with it. As it has been through the ages, it is our perception of the cross that determines how we follow Jesus.

Pre Registration: Children are on their way back to school to learn the skills that will help them to be productive adults, please remember that it is also time for them to return to PRE to learn more about their faith. The faith formed in these early years is the seed that will mature into a fruitful harvest in their adult life. All children not currently enrolled in a Catholic school are encouraged to attend PRE classes.

Registration will be held in the cafeteria at 9:00 Sunday August 21. If you have any question, please contact Brenda Plessinger at 837-8014.

PRE Teachers needed: Have you heard the call to share your faith with children but were reluctant to act on it? Are you letting your worries about not having enough training or other roadblocks stand in your way? It is time to let those concerns go and consider sharing your faith. Religious education is as vital as the ability to read and write. Without the grace received through the Eucharist and the knowledge of God's love for us and His world, who can withstand the trials of the world? The teachers in our Parish Religious Education program are dedicated to sharing their faith with the children of our parish. Each one prepares lessons in advance and teaches classes weekly September through May. They are also Virtus certified and have undergone back ground checks to ensure the safety of the children. If you are 18 years or older and feel called to share your faith with these children, please contact Fr. Timby or Brenda Plessinger ASAP!

FEAST OF FAITH

What Jesus Did, What Jesus Said

The oldest account of what happened at the Last Supper comes to us not from the Gospels but from the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians: “I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, ‘This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me’ ” (11:23–24). In our celebrations of the Eucharist, we are obedient to Christ’s command to “do this.” The priest, acting in the person of Christ, does what Jesus did and says what Jesus said. He takes bread, gives thanks, breaks it, and gives it to the Lord’s disciples. He takes wine, gives thanks, shares it with us. We believe that the entire Eucharistic Prayer is consecratory, but we continue to hold these words of Jesus in special reverence. They are called the words of consecration, and the elevations of the host and chalice, the genuflections of the priest, and the optional ringing of a bell and use of incense remind us that we are in the presence of the Lord.

Parish Cookbook Update: we are approaching 400 recipes (326) and we just received a bundle of recipes from some OLS alumni in Ohio with an note saying “these recipes are meant to balance the preponderance of Italian recipes that have surely been submitted!” There are still many good cooks out there who have not submitted any recipes. We are receiving submissions from members of other parishes who want to support our effort. Get your recipes in ASAP! You can submit them by email to OLSMemphis@aol.com. All cooks who submit a minimum of five (5) recipes will receive a free copy of the cookbook with the purchase of their first copy.

The bishops decided at their recent meeting that we can begin introducing the new musical setting of the Gloria in the celebration of the Mass so that we aren't "blindsided" on Christmas Day. WHEN

We convince ourselves that life will be better after we finish school, find a good job, get married, or have children. Then we are impatient because our youngsters need so much time and attention, or we're frustrated dealing with teenagers. Better days must be just around the corner. We tell ourselves that our real life will start when our spouse gets the big promotion; when we can find that better job, take a vacation, or retire. Yet life will always be filled with challenges and hard times. It's best to admit this and decide to live in the here and now! Someone once said, "For a long time it seemed to me that life was about to begin—real life. But there was always some obstacle in the way, something to be gotten through first, some unfinished business, time still to be served, a debt to be paid. Then life would begin. At last it dawned on me that these obstacles were my life." So treasure every moment that you have, beginning today. Stop waiting until you finish school, until you go back to school, until you lose ten pounds, until you gain ten pounds, until you have kids, until your kids leave the house, until you start work, until you retire, until you get married, until Friday night, until Sunday morning, until you get a new car or home, until your car or home is paid off, until spring, until summer, until fall, until winter, until you are off welfare, until the first or fifteenth, until your ship comes in, until you've had a drink, until you've sobered up, until you die—to decide that there is no better time than right now. Living is something you do now or never. Copyright © 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

In our opening meeting, we will be addressing the upcoming Diocesan Fall Youth Gathering (September 24th), fundraisers, Eaglefest participation, and other activities like SEARCH and QUEST. Youth Group will meet in the second and fourth Thursdays of each month and for special outings and events through the year.

Altar Server Training: Those interested in becoming altar servers should note that training will begin on Saturday, September 10, at 10:00 a.m. with an organizational meeting that will last about 30 minutes. If you are not able to come to that meeting, please call the parish office (353-1530) so alternate plans can be developed.
