*“You shall love the Lord, your God,
with all your heart,
with all your soul,
and with all your mind.”
— Matthew 22:37*

LIVING JUSTLY

“You give that back right now!” How many of us have heard that line, probably more than once, as we were growing up? We come home with the trophy of what we thought was a really sweet deal, only to have our parents undo our profits by making us return the spoils. They had a different idea of what constituted a “fair trade agreement.” Justice in our dealings with others continues to be an important measure of our character, and like a good parent, God cares very much about how we treat each other and about how others treat us. God hears the cry of the poor, and answers the call of the oppressed. God’s beloved children are not to behave like bullies.

TODAY’S READING

First Reading — You shall not oppress an alien, for you yourselves were once aliens in Egypt (Exodus 22:20-26).

Psalm — I love you, Lord, my strength (Psalm 18).

Second Reading — You became imitators of the Lord, so that you became a model for all believers (1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10).

Gospel — You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself (Matthew 22:34-40).

Major Repairs in the Parish: Part of the rectory roof was blown away in a storm, but it was undetectable from the ground, causing water to get into the attic. The water, in turn, caused an infestation of mold in the attic and the wall of the south staircase in the rectory. The roof has been repaired and the mold has been eradicated. Two air-conditioning units need to be replaced: one 27-year-old unit that cools the second storey of the rectory and a 19-year-old unit that cools one of the classrooms above the gymnasium. If you haven't seen the new paint job in the school, please come visit the school and see how fresh it looks. Next year, we hope to tackle the job of painting the classrooms in the south wing.

FEAST OF FAITH
The Sound of Communion

The priest receives Holy Communion, and then there is movement, a bustle of activity, as we prepare to join the Communion procession. This holy meal does not happen in silence! Instead, we sing together even as we rise and move forward in procession to the altar. We must change and move to receive the Eucharist, and fittingly so, since the Eucharist is transformative—it demands action of us, internal as well as external. We do not receive the sacrament in silence, but with a dialogue that is also a profession of faith: “The Body of Christ.” “Amen.” “The Blood of Christ.” “Amen.” We acknowledge the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist with our “Amen” of faith, but more, our “Amen” is also a prayer that we may become what we receive, the Body of Christ, living and active in the world. We receive him not that he may become a part of us, but that we may become a part of him—part, too, of all the others who receive him, the whole communion of believers.

Many, Many Thanks: Eaglefest was a great success because of the hard work of so many good people. The list is too long to mention everyone and there is a chance that someone’s deserving name would be left out, but there are a few who have worked long and hard at coordinating all the events that should be noted: Linda Lesslie, Sylvia Viglietti, Ken and Renee Scarleski, Mike and Donna Page, Henry and Jeanne Littleton, Perla Villanueva, Susan Hissong and, Carolyn Roberts. And at the top of any list of those who made Eaglefest the day that it was are Mike and Linda O’Donnell, who spend more hours, seat through more stuff and shed more tears than they should have to as the chairman of our annual festival. Please take the time to thanks them all for their hard work on the success of our parish festival.

Know Hunger and VOTE: The Mid-South Food Bank currently holds 9th place in a nationwide campaign to raise the awareness of hunger in our communities. The three area or regional food banks that receive the most votes will receive 30,000 pounds of food from Tyson Foods. Please vote for the Mid-South Food Bank of Memphis online at <https://www.facebook.com/questions/10150296053666776/>. Our St. Vincent De Paul Society and Pre-School and After-School programs rely heavily on food from the Mid-South Food Bank so a vote is really a vote for ourselves and the people we serve face-to-face every day. (You can vote more than once!)

2012 Mass Intentions – We are scheduling Mass intentions for the 2012 calendar year. The cost to have a Mass offered is $5.00 for weekday Mass and $10.00 for Sunday/Holy Day Masses. Dates fill up quickly. Call the Parish Office at 353-1530 and speak to Carolyn to schedule Masses.

First Communion & Confirmation Mass Attendance: All OLS parishioners desiring to celebrate their First Holy Communion or Confirmation this Spring 2012 must meet the following criteria:

- Have been enrolled and an active participant in religious education for at least two full consecutive years at the time of the sacramental celebration;
- Participate in the weekly celebration of Sunday Mass;
- Receive a Mass attendance ticket from Fr. Timby following each Sunday liturgy and give it to their religion teacher for safe-keeping.

Those just beginning their sacramental preparation process must complete the following if they wish to receive First Holy Communion or Confirmation in Spring 2013:

- Be enrolled in and an active participant in religious education for at least two full consecutive years at the time of the sacramental celebration;
- Participate in the weekly celebration of Sunday Mass, even during summer months;
- Receive a Mass attendance ticket from Fr. Timby following each Sunday liturgy and give it to their religion teacher for safe-keeping.

Congratulations to the OLS Eagle Soccer Teams: The OLS 5th/6th grade soccer team was impressive this past week, winning a pair of games and outscoring their opponents by a 10-4 margin. Their record now stands at 4-2 on the season. In other action, the 3rd/4th grade team suffered their first defeat of the season, but still own a 2-1-1 mark overall. The 1st/2nd grade team, as well as the 7th/8th grade team, competed well but were defeated. Best of luck to all our OLS teams this weekend!

Solemnity of All Saints: November 1st is the Solemnity of All Saints and is a Holy Day of Obligation. All Catholics who have reached the age of reason (7 years of age) or have celebrated their First Holy Communion are obliged to assist at Mass on this day except for grave reasons. Children who participate in Halloween activities such as trick or treating should be reminded that the reason they can do so is because of the Holy Day. Mass are at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, October 31, and 9:00 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. on November 1.

All-Hallow's Eve Dinner: The Latino community of OLS will have it monthly dinner on Sunday, October 30 following the 5:00 p.m. liturgy (about 6:30 p.m.) in the cafeteria. The children will be invited to dress up as saints as they recall the approaching celebration of the Feast of All Saints on November 1. This is a pot luck dinner. Every family is asked to bring enough to feed themselves plus 5 other people. You don't have to speak Spanish to join the fun. Come join us!

All-Souls Masses Memorials: Both the Bible and the church teach that praying for the dead and offering sacrifices for them is a good thing because it reveals our faith in life after death and the mercy of God toward those who die in friendship with him, i.e., in the state of grace. It is a tradition in the Catholic Church to have Masses offered for the dead throughout the year but especially on All Soul's Day (Nov. 2). Please use the envelopes in your envelope sets distributed last December or those that are at the end of the pews to have your loved ones remembers in all the Masses on All Souls Day and at every Sunday Mass through the month of November. The names submitted will also be included in our Book of the Living that will be placed on a special table in the sanctuary. Carolyn, our beloved parish secretary, asks that you PLEASE PRINT THE NAMES of your loved ones so that she can accurately record them. The deadline for inclusion on All Souls Day is Monday, October 31.

Congratulations to the OLS Eagle Soccer Teams: The OLS 5th/6th grade and 3rd/4th grade soccer teams were both victorious last weekend. The 5th and 6th grade victory was their third consecutive win, giving them a 5-2 mark overall. The 3rd and 4th grade were able to rebound from their only loss of the season last week to raise their record to 3-1-1 overall. The 1st/2nd and 7th/8th grade teams are both searching for their first victory, but are competing hard and improving greatly. Best of luck to all our OLS soccer teams this weekend!

CBHS Open House: Christian Brothers High School (CBHS) will be hosting an Open House for 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students and their parents on Sunday, November 6, 1 p.m., in the CBHS auditorium, 5900 Walnut Grove Road in Memphis. For more information, contact John Bordelon, CBHS Director of Admissions at 261-4950 or the CBHS website, www.cbhs.org.

Youth4Christ Activity: The OLS Youth Group (grades 6-12 only) will visit the corn maze on Thursday, October 27. We will meet at the Jones Orchard Corn Maze on Raleigh-Millington Road at 6:30 p.m. Guests are welcome, but OLS will pay only for those members of the Youth Group who have been to two or more meetings/activities since September 1 and one (1) adult chaperone per car. After the corn maze we will go to Milano's Pizza in Millington.

Almanacs Needed: OLS School is in need of current almanacs for the library. If you have an almanac for 2008, 2009, 2010 or 2011, please consider donating it to our parish school.

New School Secretary: Please welcome Mrs. Carol Hunter as the new secretary at OLS Parish School. Mrs. Hunter and her husband are members of St. William Parish in Millington. They have 5 children who range in age from a senior in high school to 4 years old. Mrs. Hunter was born in New Jersey of Puerto Rican parents and grew up in Texas, which she considers home. She is fluent in Spanish and English. Mrs. Hunter will work 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and will begin on Monday, October 31st.
